The Licensee is hereby permitted to display DVD materials supplied to it by Friends & Heroes Productions Ltd or its authorised agents. This licence does not permit the display of episodes (or extracts from episodes) recorded from television, cable, satellite or internet feeds.

Licence conditions

Licences are provided subject to the following easy to understand conditions. By signing this Licence and paying the Licence fee you agree to fully comply with these conditions of usage as follows:

1. The licence fee is payable, in advance of the showing(s), to Friends & Heroes Productions Ltd.
2. This licence fee is NON TRANSFERABLE and NON-RETURNABLE whether or not the licensed showing(s) actually take place.
3. The DVD material itself required to show the programmes must be obtained separately. You may not use this licence with episodes recorded from television, cable, satellite, internet feeds or in any other way.
4. You may use the Friends and Heroes registered trade marks, eg our logos and images only under the terms of the "Publicity Pack" on the Friends and Heroes web site. You must not claim to represent Friends and Heroes.
5. The organiser of the showings is responsible for obtaining any equipment necessary to show these programmes.
6. The organiser is responsible for complying with all legal requirements relating to the showing – including safety and licensing of the venue.
7. This licence does not allow you to make copies of any part of the DVDs for any purpose whatsoever. This would be a serious breach of our copyright and would lead to immediate termination of this licence (without refund), and possible further legal action.
8. Friends & Heroes Productions Ltd does not consider freewill offerings forming part of a service of Christian Worship to be an "Admission Charge"
9. Your organisation or event may require a music performance licence for any performance of music products - including Friends and Heroes DVD videos. Contact the Performing Right Society for details of licences in the UK.
