Award-winning TV Series

Friends and Heroes, the award-winning TV series shown by the BBC, is an animated action-adventure for children aged 6-10 which weaves stories from both Old and New Testaments into every episode. Now there's a series of original lessons based on the Biblical material in each programme, ideal for almost every children's ministry situation!

As your children follow Macky and his friends' exciting adventures, they will understand that the Bible has much to offer as we try to decide what is right and what we should do today, as they did then. They easily see themselves joining in the action as Macky, Portia and their friends try to escape the clutches of their enemies and share the exploits of Biblical heroes.

Sunday School Lessons

Each lesson plan includes:

- ✓ Teacher preparation and lists of resources needed
- ✓ Craft activities and/or games related to the Bible story or theme
- ✓ Lesson material to explore the theme more deeply
- ✓ Creative prayer material
- ✓ Printable resources for the children to use during the lesson and
- ✓ An original fun activity for children to take home too!

Materials for children's ministry!

This Friends and Heroes material can also be used, by a licensed organisation or individual, in many other children's ministry situations: Family Services; Holiday Bible Clubs; special events; etc. And the learning needn't be confined to church! Children can carry on enjoying the stories via our children's website:
