PRESS RELEASE - JANUARY 2012

Doing the right thing is easier with Right on!

Church and children's ministry leaders will welcome a great new resource for Holiday Bible clubs, from Friends and Heroes, the producers of the award-winning animated children's Bible story DVDs.

A complete package

Right on! is a comprehensive five-day programme for children aged 6-11, with an optional sixth day which can be used as a wider family fun-day, plus a seventh day designed as an opportunity to share the experience of your Holiday Bible Club with your church or organisation.

Covering themes such as standing up for what is right, doing the right thing and being a true friend; Right on! builds into a superb week of exploring Bible stories with Friends and Heroes characters Macky and Portia.

"Ever since its launch in 2007, Friends and Heroes has always been a popular idea to build a Holiday Club programme around," said Alison Dorricott, Executive Producer of the animated adventure series. "But now we've made it easy for churches by creating a complete, easy-to-use resource for them. With its fun, action-packed, lively and yet Biblically-faithful content, you could almost say this is what Friends and Heroes was created for!"

"Wide-eyed and open-mouthed!"

Children's worker Sally Newsome said "The Friends and Heroes programme is going really well – we are seeing the biggest difference in the children who come along with very little church experience - they are accessing teaching so much more fully now because they sit wide-eyed and open mouthed and absorb the story first in a medium that is so very accessible to them. It is really helping us to meet a newer group of children where they are at."

The Right on! CD-ROM retails for £30 and includes a General Introduction and a Leader's Guide for each day, PLUS six song tracks and PowerPoint presentations.

The CD-ROM also features printable resources, activity sheets, clip-art, and publicity material – all provided as PDFs ready for printing. Holiday club leaders can print as many as they need, whenever they choose, with no waste.

The resource also comes complete with a Public Display Licence (voucher) – required for any public showings.

Right on! is designed to be used with Friends and Heroes Episodes 6-9 which are available separately on two DVDs. There are no extras to buy, for those who already have the DVDs.
