

HE CHOSE THE SHEPHERDS

Jesus' Birth

(Daniel Lozinski)

Joseph and Mary, poor as can be
Went to Bethlehem for the Emperor's decree Expecting a child and tired from the journey
They needed sleep and a place to lay their heads

But no-one would let them in
Only a stable was free

*That day God chose to show a revelation
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds
That day God chose to show the less respected
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds*

Humble shepherds, working in their field
Hearing a voice they fell upon their knees
Barely believing the news about this baby
Christ the Lord, bringing peace to all the earth

Then they heard angels sing
Glory to God, peace on earth to everyone

*That day God chose to show a revelation
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds
That day God chose to show the
less respected
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds
He chose the shepherds*

Glory to God, peace on earth to everyone

*That day God chose to show a revelation
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds
That day God chose to show the
less respected
God's Son as a baby, he chose the shepherds
And God chose us all
Sent Jesus, lived to save the world
He chose the shepherds*
