

TURNED AROUND

Saul on the Road to Damascus

(Judy MacKenzie-Dunn)

Well I was riding down the road
On the highway to Damascus
With my mission and my goal
To destroy the friends of Jesus
I was travelling the wrong way
Thinking I was doing right
When I heard a voice from heaven
And I saw a blinding light

*I will never be the same
Since I heard him call my name
My whole life has turned around
From now on...
I'm heaven-bound*

Now I sail across the ocean
And I ride from land to land
Now I love the friends of Jesus
Because Jesus is my friend
And I'm telling everyone I meet
What he has done for me
I was blind before I met him
But now he has made me see

*I will never be the same
Since I heard him call my name
My whole life has turned around
From now on...
I'm heaven-bound*
