

WHAT ABOUT LOVE? (PORTIA'S SONG)

(Judy MacKenzie-Dunn)

Everything a girl might want is not
Everything a girl might need
All this stuff that I own
The silver and gold
Don't do it for me
Everything that money can buy is not
Everything I want to be
I just opened a door
And something I saw
Keeps calling to me...

*What about love... and kindness?
What about truth... and justice?
What about good news for the poor
And a life worth living for?
What about love?*

Someone opened up my eyes
Taught me how to tell the truth from lies
Showed me how I can care
For people out there
Who can barely survive

Such a different world from mine
Could I really leave my world behind?
It's so hard to let go
Of something I know
For what I might find....

What about love... and kindness?...

*What about love... and kindness?
What about truth...
What about love?*
