Friends and Heroes DVD Extras

Be sure to let your student check out the extras on the DVDs (Main Menu, Extras). Every episode features "Macky's Quiz" which tests your student's knowledge of what s/he has been learning. You will also find still image highlights from the episodes. Various DVDs also have additional features, such as "Macky Confidential," a music video, sing-along, Bible quizzes, and more.

What will a typical week look like?

That is up to you! Use this curriculum in a way that fits your family. Some families prefer to do a little bit each day all week long; other families like to complete each week's activities in just a few days. We've outlined below how you might use it, but these are only suggestions.

Remember these two wonderful things about homeschooling:

- We can make school fit into our family life, rather than making our family life fit into school.
- Curriculum is a tool, not your boss.

Recommended Schedule (Option 1)

You may choose to complete each week's curriculum in two days—doing Activity 1 on one day and then Activity 2 on another day—plus additional time spent on the optional activities.

Alternatively, here is another example of how to use the curriculum. This example has your student doing something in the curriculum each day of the week.

Recommended Schedule (Option 2)

Monday:

Optional: Begin to memorize Memory Verse.

Watch the episode or clip (usually the first step of Activity 1).

Teacher's Guide Homeschool Bible – Series 1

Introduction

Tuesday:

Optional: Continue to work on memory verse.
Complete the remainder of Activity 1: Bible Study.
If needed, watch clip of the episode.

Wednesday:

Optional: Continue to work on memory verse.
Watch the episode again, if you wish.

Thursday:

Optional: Finish learning memory verse.
Complete Activity 2: Applying What We've Learned.

Friday:

Optional: Have student recite memory verse.
Optional: Complete (optional) Extra, Extra! activity.

Note: Many activities recommend that the student watch a certain clip from the DVD. Feel free to let your student watch just the clip that pertains to that day's lesson; or if you prefer, let your student watch the entire episode again. It's your call.

These weekly schedules are merely suggestions. Remember, use this curriculum in a way that best fits your family's needs and schedule.

Should my student work independently or should I help him/her?

Do what best suits your family. In our own families, we use a mixture of the two: some of the activities are done independently, but most are done with the teacher. However, we would recommend that you do spend time with your child watching the videos, reading scripture together, and praying together. There will be many teachable moments in these activities for you to share with your student. As you watch the episodes together, you have the opportunity to pause the episode and discuss. And your time spent reading the Bible and praying with your student is a precious gift indeed.

Our prayerful focus when we wrote this curriculum was to help children learn about and become Friends of Jesus themselves and to become more like Jesus. What better person to lead them on that path than you?

- Leah and Rebecca arrive in a cargo ship.
- The Romans try to capture Leah and Rebecca.

- We meet the character Tobias (his nickname is Toadie), the Governor's deputy, who is greedy and proud.

Your student can go to www.friendsandheroes.tv then click Meet the Characters to learn more about both the adventure characters (i.e., the fictional characters) and the Bible characters.

Activity 2: Applying What We've Learned

Your student is learning about having courage and trusting God. Talk with your child about his/her fears. Pray with your child about those fears.

Extra, Extra! (optional):

Each week for the optional Extra, Extra!, we will feature an activity for your student to do, often from our award-winning website, www.friendsandheroes.tv.

This week, we recommend your student try the Episode 1 online wordsearch by going to www.friendsandheroes.tv, then clicking Games > Puzzles by Episode > Episode 1 > Wordsearch Puzzle (www.friendsandheroes.tv/games/wordsearch_long_journey.html). There's no need to print it; just click and drag to highlight the found words.

Feel free to let your student explore www.friendsandheroes.tv on his/her own as well, as there are many activities there that s/he will enjoy.
