

PRESS RELEASE – 6 August 2015

Warrington girl wins Bible story competition!

The Prize: a portable DVD Player of her own to play Friends and Heroes on!

Anna Naomi Marshall, aged 9, from Warrington has been declared winner in an exciting interactive competition run by Plus Eagle Wings (PEW) and Friends and Heroes.

PEW is a children's bi-monthly Bible based comic. Each issue of PEW integrates multi-platform media for 6-12 year olds bringing the very best illustrated Bible stories, crafts and light-hearted entertainment with interesting features.

Friends and Heroes is an award-winning animated series of Bible stories on DVD. First shown on BBC TV, this exciting adventure series set in Roman times, encourages children to engage with Bible stories through the visual medium of TV.

To win the competition Anna had to view the Old Testament story of Ruth taken from Friends and Heroes, Episode 7 and then correctly answer a series of questions about the story. Her entry was chosen from a multitude of entries received.

Anna's prize, a limited-edition Friends and Heroes DVD player with a DVD, will allow her to watch her favourite DVDs at home, on holiday and even in the car.
